Notice of Building Inspection Program Assumption – Wallowa County

On December 31, 2008, the Building Codes Division received notice that Wallowa County was interested in providing building inspection services in Wallowa County. Currently, the State of Oregon provides building inspection services in Wallowa County. Wallowa County's request was to assume local administration of building inspections during the 2009 calendar year.

On May 7, 2009, the Building Codes Division received Wallowa County's proposed assumption plan. Objections to this plan must be submitted to the Building Codes Division within 30 days after this notice. The plan may be viewed on the division's web site: <http://www.bcd.oregon.gov>.

Any objection filed with the Division should include:

- a) An explanation as to the basis of the objection based on the proposed plan, and
- b) Identification of the program standard not met by the proposed plan.
